

Submarine model to demonstrate density and floatation

IRELAND:

The bottle models the ballast tanks on a Submarine. By controlling the amount of air in the tanks the submarine sinks to different depths. Blu-tak can be used to seal the tube in the bottle top. First sink the bottle. The bottle fills with water. Blow into the bottle. Air is pushed out and the bottle rises.

